

APRIL RESOURCES & ACTIVITIES

These activities have been selected to enjoy the spring and Easter time while learning about China and Japan and the Museum collection.

Disclaimer: This document contains links to YouTube videos and external website links selected by the Museum team. The Museum of East Asian Art is not responsible for the content, accessibility or privacy policies of external websites. The inclusion of a link to an external website from our website or downloadable materials does not entail an endorsement of that website, its owners, products or services. We also advise to have the necessary parental controls in place. Find links in green

Which regions are in East and South East Asia? Look inside the circle!

Easter Activities: All about Bunnies!

Many East Asian countries believe you can see the shape of a rabbit in the moon, rather than a 'man in the moon'. Learn more about the tale of the rabbit in the moon and much more in these activities.

Read and be Inspired

The Jade Rabbit

Challenge: Can you try to trace the outline of the bunny in the moon?

Image by Esaias Tan on Unsplash

Watch

The tale of the Rabbit in the Moon

Story told in China, Japan, Korea and other East Asian Regions

Did you know: The Museum of East Asian Art has its very own jade rabbit? It is hundreds of years old! Click on the image and explore this and other objects of our collection online.

Make

Try the ancient art of Japanese folding paper, known as origami, to get your Easter decorations ready.

Origami Bunny (Easy)

Origami Rabbit (Intermediate)

Rabbit Box (Advanced)

Basket (Advanced)

Also:

Template for Bunny Ears

Activity

Brush painting is a traditional form of art in countries such as Japan and China. See videos and learn more about traditional brush painting:

Brush Painting Pandas (For Children)

Chinese Brush Painting (For adults and teachers)

The picture on the next page is inspired by brush painting. Finish the drawing - with the moon, a landscape and anything else you would like - with a black pen or ink and colour it.

